ASK: Please ask Jeff to contribute $50,000 to the Redistricting Trust at this time.

NOTE: Mei Sze and Jeff hosted a DCCC reception, which Leader Pelosi attended, at their home in Palm Beach with Congresswoman Lois Frankel on Wednesday, February 19th. Jeff committed to contribute $5,000 towards the event but has not made his contribution yet.

Bio: Jeff was born in 1954 in Worcester, Massachusetts to working-class Jewish parents. His father ran a business selling textile mill machinery. His mother was a Hebrew school instructor. His family moved to Florida in 1970 after his father lost his business. In Florida, his father worked refilling vending machines and his mother worked as a waitress.

Jeff worked many jobs to put himself through college at Johns Hopkins University, graduating in three years with a B.A. in economics and sociology. Later he attended Harvard Business School, where he earned his Master of Business Administration (MBA) degree in 1977.

Jeff began investing in real estate while in business school, and built a successful real estate business from being a mere busboy at the Breakers Hotel in Palm Beach. In mid-2006, Jeff, worried about the possible collapse of the real estate market, spoke with John Paulson, a fellow investor who discussed with Jeff his investing strategy. They agreed that the real estate market was unstable and a bubble might be forming in housing. After the meeting, Greene engaged in a similar investing strategy to that of Paulson, which involved a series of unconventional investments trading credit default swaps. The return on Greene's investments ultimately saved his business, and put him on Forbes 400 list.

Jeff ran for the US Senate nomination in Florida in 2010, ultimately losing to Rep. Kendrick Meek. He was endorsed by the Tallahassee Democrat's editorial board.

He is married to Chinese-Australian real estate executive Mei Szi Chan, and they have one child, Malcolm.

Address: Miami Beach, FL

ASK: Please ask tom to contribute $25,000 to the Redistricting Trust at this time.

Background:

Tom attended the February 18, 2014 House Majority PAC Dinner hosted by Sabine and Stephen Bittel. Thomas contributed $10,000 to House Majority PAC in February of 2014.

Tom Sullivan founded Lumber Liquidators in 1993. He was a building contractor and began purchasing excess wood that other companies didn't need and reselling it from the back of a trucking yard in Stoughton, Massachusetts. The company found its niche market in hardwood flooring. The first store opened on January 5, 1996 in West Roxbury, Massachusetts selling 150 sq ft of flooring the first day. Eight months later, a second store opened in Hartford, Connecticut and from there the increase continued. Over the past 20 years the company has grown steadily, with stores in 46 states and over 1000 employees. Lumber Liquidators has hundreds of locations in the US and Canada and continues to expand throughout North America. Sullivan, 53, has kept a primary residence on Palm Island in Miami Beach for five years.

Tom's main concern is the environment and renewable energy.
