

2014 Red to Blue Candidates

Pete Aguilar (CA-31)

Open Seat

- Pete Aguilar is currently serving as Mayor of Redlands, California. Previously he served as a member of the Redlands City Council and is a small business owner.
- This Inland Empire district is the most Democratic district held by a Republican; President Obama received almost 58% of the vote in 2012.
- In February of 2014, Rep. Gary Miller announced his retirement creating a heavily Democratic favored open seat.
- Pete has been a strong fundraiser, raising over $1.3 million in a very competitive primary but he will need to have the resources to defeat his Republican challenger in the expensive LA media market.
- In the June 3rd primary election, Aguilar placed second in the “jungle primary” overcoming high Republican turnout. Aguilar defeated two Republicans and earned the most votes of any Democrat.
- Aguilar and the DCCC IE are up on television with their first ads both focused on education.

Staci Appel (IA-03)

Open Seat

- Staci Appel is a former State Senator who won in a heavily Republican district, where she fought for Iowa’s middle class families, farmers, and small business owners.
- In December, Rep. Tom Latham announced his retirement leaving an open seat in this district that leans Democratic. President Obama won in 2012 with 53% of the vote.
- Due to her work in the state Senate district, Staci will be able to make inroads to rural voters in the Western portion of the district.
- A recent poll shows that this race is a dead heat with Appel slightly ahead. She is leading Young by 2 points.
- Appel started airing TV ads in August. She had run three positive spots emphasizing her record on getting things done in Iowa families. The DCCC went up in the beginning of September with a negative ad attacking Young.
- In the first week of September, Young and the NRCC both went on the air.

2014 Red to Blue Candidates

Brad Ashford (NE-02)

Incumbent Rep. Lee Terry

- Brad Ashford is a state Senator who is known for his ability to work with both parties to get results.
- Ashford entered the race late in February of 2014; he needs to put together a campaign budget quickly but with the necessary resources this seat is winnable.
- Multiple public and private polls show Ashford tied with incumbent Rep. Lee Terry.
- Rep. Terry is uniquely vulnerable. He has nearly universal name ID and nearly twice as many voters disapprove of his job performance than approve. During the government shutdown Terry was quoted saying that he would not return his paycheck because he has a “nice house and a kid in college.” Polling shows that Rep. Terry’s vote to shut down the government and his subsequent comments have dramatically damaged his re-election prospects.
- In July, Stu Rothenberg, a leading political forecaster upgraded this race from Republican favored to Toss-up/Lean Republican.
- Rep. Terry began airing TV ads the third week of August.
- Ashford went up on air with his first positive ad during the first week of September. The ad highlights Brad’s ability to solve problems for Nebraska.

Aimee Belgard (NJ-03)

Open Seat

- Aimee Belgard is currently a Burlington County Freeholder and has a long history of public service.
- Belgard is running in an open seat following Rep. Jon Runyan’s announcement that he will not seek re-election.
- Though President Obama won this district in 2012 with 53.2% of the vote, Belgard will need to run an aggressive campaign and raise enough money to be competitive in both the New York and Philadelphia media markets.
- Belgard is running against Republican businessman Tom MacArthur, who has personally contributed $3 million to his campaign to date.
- The NRCC announced a $1.8 million reservation in the Philadelphia media market in support of NJ-03, PA-06 and PA-08. This was one of the first districts the DCCC IE started paid communication in.
- The first public poll of NJ-03 is out, and it places Democrat Aimee Belgard and Republican Tom MacArthur in a statistical tie. The early poll released September 15th by the Stockton Polling Institute found MacArthur and Belgard both have 42.2 percent support among those surveyed. Another 12.8 percent were undecided, and 2.9 percent said they planned to back someone else, “nobody” or refused to answer. This coincides with a recent internal poll commissioned by the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee that also showed the race was razor tight, but with MacArthur leading Belgard 46 to 43 percent, and within the 4.9 percent margin of error.
- Belgard is currently on television with her first ad of the cycle.

2014 Red to Blue Candidates

Erin Bilbray (NV-03)

Incumbent Rep. Joe Heck

- Erin is a third generation Nevadan and has strong ties to the community.
- Erin founded Emerge Nevada, an organization that encourages and trains women to run for office.
- President Obama won the third district with 50.4% of the vote in 2012, and Senator Reid carried the district with 50.9% in 2010.
- Erin is up on Las Vegas cable with her first ad with a spot featuring her daughter.

Pam Byrnes (MI-07)

Incumbent Rep. Tim Walberg

- Pam Byrnes is a former State Representative with a record of winning tough races.
- Michigan's 7th district became more Democratic after redistricting.
- Byrnes is facing Tea Party Republican Rep. Tim Walberg whose politics are out of step with this district.
- Byrnes' sprawling district covers five media markets, including the costly Detroit market.
- Byrnes went up on the air at the end of August. The ads highlight how Byrnes voted against perks for legislators during her time in the Michigan House of Representatives.

Emily Cain (ME-02)

Open Seat

- Emily Cain is currently serving her first term in the Maine State Senate.
- She is the former House Democratic leader, and was the youngest woman to hold that position in Maine history. She was first elected to the Maine House in 2004 at the age of 24.
- In 2010, the most challenging year for Democrats in recent history, Rep. Mike Michaud was re-elected by a 10 point margin. President Obama won this district by 9 point margin over Mitt Romney in 2012 and a 10 point margin over John McCain in 2008.
- A poll released by the Poliquin campaign in August found Cain leading Republican Bruce Poliquin 37%-33%.
- Republican Bruce Poliquin is a self-funder and Cain must have the resources to communicate her message to voters.
- Emily Cain is currently on television with her first ad of the general.

2014 Red to Blue Candidates

Ann Callis (IL-13)

Incumbent Rep. Rodney Davis

- Ann Callis is the former Chief Judge of the Illinois Third Judicial Circuit, where she was known as a reformer.
- This district represents the closest race won by a Republican. Rep. Davis won this seat by a margin of only 1,002 votes in 2012.
- Illinois' 13th district lies partially in the costly St. Louis market, making it a relatively expensive race.
- The NRCC announced a $700,000 reservation in the St. Louis media market in support of Rep. Davis.
- Callis began airing her first spot of the general election during the last week of August. The spot advocates standing up for the good guys, veterans and teachers, and cutting Washington perks.

Jerry Cannon (MI-01)

Incumbent Rep. Dan Benishek

- Jerry Cannon is an Iraq and Vietnam veteran, retired National Guard Major General, and former county sheriff.
- As a county sheriff, he has worked throughout northern Michigan to keep communities safe, and as a General in Iraq he helped secure our troops.
- Rep. Benishek has not established a base of support in this district and won by less than 1% in 2012.
- In September, Roll Call listed Rep. Benishek as one of the 8 most endangered Republican members.
- Rep. Benishek went up on the air at the beginning of July. Cannon needs to continue to build resources so he can tell his story to voters.
- Cannon began airing ads the second week of Augusts. He is on his second ad both ads feature his service in the military and as county sheriff.
- The DCCC IE went up with an ad in September. The ad attacks Rep. Benishek for voting to cut Medicare.

Nick Casey (WV-02)

Open Seat

- Nick Casey is an attorney, certified public accountant, and former Chairman of the WV Democratic Party. He is also the Past President of the West Virginia State Bar Association.
- Casey is running in the open seat being vacated by Rep. Shelly Moore Capito.
- Former Maryland state Senator Alex Mooney will be Casey's Republican opponent in the general election. Mooney recently moved to West Virginia to run for this Congressional seat.
- Casey has been on TV since early August with several ads highlighting his penny-pinching ways, and his service to his community.

2014 Red to Blue Candidates

Michael Eggman (CA-10)

Incumbent Rep. Jeff Denham

- Michael Eggman is the owner of Eggman Bee Farm, a family farm in Turlock, California.
- California's 10th district consists of Stanislaus County and portions of San Joaquin County, and is 34.9% Hispanic. President Obama won this district in 2012.
- Eggman's background is a good fit for the district, as agriculture makes up much of the area's economy.
- Eggman has begun spending on paid communications in California's 10th district.

Sean Eldridge (NY-19)

Incumbent Rep. Chris Gibson

- Sean Eldridge is the president of Hudson River Ventures, an investment fund focused on investing in small business opportunities in the Hudson Valley. He is also a Senior Advisor at Freedom to Marry, the campaign to win marriage equality nationwide.
- The 19th district is one of the most competitive Republican-held seats in New York; President Obama won the district with 53.2% of the vote.
- The district is covered by four media markets, one of them being the cost-prohibitive New York City market.
- The NRCC announced a $1,040,000 reservation in support of Rep. Gibson.
- Eldridge is currently on television with his first ads of the cycle.

John Foust (VA-10)

Open Seat

- Since his election to the Fairfax Board of Supervisors in 2007, Foust has brought his commitment to hard work and problem solving leadership to the families and businesses of northern Virginia.
- Rep. Woolf announced in December of 2013 he would not seek re-election, making this seat immediately competitive. In 2012, President Obama won this district with 50.1 percent of the vote.
- Virginia's 10th district is fully in the Washington, DC media market; Foust will need to keep his strong fundraising pace to communicate with voters in this very expensive market.
- In the second fundraising period of 2014, Foust outraised his Republican opponent Barbara Comstock and has nearly twice as much cash on hand.
- The NRCC has made a fall ad reservation of $2,800,000 to defend this open seat. The American Action Network and Congressional Leadership Fund have announced plans to spend $1million on TV against Foust.
- Foust went up on the air in mid-September with two powerful ads.

2014 Red to Blue Candidates

Gwen Graham (FL-02)

Incumbent Rep. Steve Southerland

- Gwen Graham was previously the Director of Employee Relations for the Leon County School District. Before that she worked as a lawyer at an energy and environmental law firm in Washington, D.C.
- Gwen is the daughter of former Governor and U.S. Senator Bob Graham.
- Rep. Steve Southerland narrowly defeated Democratic nominee Al Lawson in this district in 2012, receiving only 52.7% of the vote.
- Graham outraised Southerland in the second quarter of 2014, and retains a cash on hand advantage. Because of her strong fundraising, Graham is able to be on TV early, defining herself and communicating with voters.
- Gwen has been on TV since June, and will be up through Election Day. She has had multiple ads, including ones with her father, small businesses in North Florida, and highlighting her economic agenda.
- The NRCC has placed a fall ad reservation of $900,000 to defend Rep. Southerland. They are currently on the air attacking Graham.
- In July 2014, Rothenberg Political Report moved Graham's race to a "Toss-up" rating from "Lean Republican".

Patrick Henry Hays (AR-02)

Open Seat

- Patrick Henry Hays was the Mayor of North Little Rock, AR for more than twenty years before retiring in 2012. His long serving record brings abnormally high favorability and name ID to the race.
- Hays is largely credited with turning the city around and is responsible for the Verizon Center, a minor league ballpark, and the Patrick Henry Hays Senior Center.
- Hays will compete against out-of-touch Republican banker French Hill in November.
- Hays is a strong fundraiser with an extensive network in AR. At the end of the second fundraising period of 2014, Hays had a cash on hand advantage over Hill.
- Hays went up on TV in early August with an ad showing how he balanced budgets during his time as Mayor. His second ad, which debuted in mid-August, demonstrates the kind of leader he was for North Little Rock as Mayor. His third ad featuring local businesses and his grandchildren was released in September, as was his fourth ad about job creation. Hill did not go up on TV with a general election ad until mid- September.
- Hill was named to the NRCC's Young Guns list in July 2014.

2014 Red to Blue Candidates

Roxanne “Rocky” Lara (NM-02)

Incumbent Rep. Steve Pearce

- Rocky Lara is a former Eddy County Commissioner and small business owner.
- During her time at the Commission, she worked hard to maintain and bring good jobs to Southern New Mexico.
- Rocky provides a contrast to millionaire Rep. Pearce in one of the most heavily Hispanic districts in America represented by a non-Hispanic Republican.
- Rocky raised $375,000 and outraised her incumbent opponent by nearly $86,000 in Q2 2014.
- Rocky is up on TV with her first ad featuring her family and criticizing Rep. Pearce for voting for congressional perks.

John Lewis (MT-AL)

Open Seat

- John Lewis was former Senator Max Baucus' state director. While working for Senator Baucus, Lewis visited all 56 counties in the state.
- Lewis will face former state Senator Ryan Zinke. Zinke won a bruising Republican primary after spending more than $200,000 on television.
- Lewis enters the general election with a cash advantage but will need to raise enough to compete in a statewide race covering five media markets.
- Zinke was added to the NRCC's Young Guns program in July. This is the Republicans' list of top recruits and indicates that they will invest in this district.
- Lewis began airing TV ads the last week of August. His ads highlight his Montana roots and his plan to cut wasteful spending and support veterans and seniors.

Seth Moulton (MA-06)

Open Seat

- Seth Moulton is a marine and Iraq war veteran. After completing his final tour in the Marines, Seth earned an MPA from the John F. Kennedy School of Government and an MBA from Harvard Business School.
- Following a late primary in September, Moulton emerged to compete in the expensive Boston media market.
- The Chamber of Commerce has placed $350,000 in advertising to support Republican candidate Richard Tisei. Additionally, the YG network has reserved advertising time in this district.
- The NRCC announced a $2.2 million reservation in the Boston and Manchester media markets against MA-06, NH-01 and NH-02.
- According to a recent DCCC survey of likely general election voters in MA-06 released September 16, Democrat and veteran U.S. Marine Captain Seth Moulton enters the general election with an early lead over Republican Richard Tisei. In the congressional matchup, Moulton leads Tisei by 8 points (49% to 41%), with just 10% of voters still undecided. Moulton enjoys especially strong margins among must-win groups within the likely electorate, namely women (+11 point lead over Tisei) and older voters (+5 point lead over Tisei).
- Seth Moulton is on television in the Boston cable market following the primary.

2014 Red to Blue Candidates

Jim Mowrer (IA-04)

Incumbent Rep. Steve King

- Jim Mowrer is a retired army sergeant and former defense department official.
- Mowrer is running against Tea Party favorite Rep. Steve King. Rep. King's inflammatory comments about immigration and other issues have drawn attention in Iowa and nationwide.
- With three media markets and 39 counties paid communication has the potential to be expensive; especially with a competitive Senate race this cycle.
- Mowrer is raising the resources he will need and enjoys a sizeable cash on hand advantage.

Pat Murphy (IA-01)

Open Seat

- Pat Murphy is an attorney and former Speaker of the Iowa House of Representatives.
- On June 3rd, Murphy won a competitive Democratic primary for Iowa's first Congressional district which is being vacated by Rep. Bruce Braley.
- Democratic Rep. Bruce Braley has held this seat since 2006. President Obama won the seat in 2008 and 2012.
- Murphy's Tea Party opponent Rod Blum is out of touch. He has already taken precarious political positions such as privatizing social security. However, Blum does have the ability to self-fund giving him resources to frame his story.
- Two recent polls show Murphy with a lead. He will need to continue to put together the resources to make sure his opponent can't catch up.
- Blum was added to the NRCC's Young Guns program in July. This is the Republican's list of top recruits and indicates that they will invest in this district.
- Murphy started airing TV ads during the first week in September. His first ad highlights his middle class family and his success advocating for families like his in the Iowa House of Representatives.

2014 Red to Blue Candidates

Domenic M. Recchia, Jr. (NY-11)

Incumbent Rep. Michael Grimm

- Councilman Recchia was elected to the New York City Council in 2001, after serving as a Community School Board member for 12 years. He served as the Chairman of the New York City Council Finance Committee.
- Rep. Grimm was recently indicted. He has stated publicly that he has no plans to vacate the ballot, take a leave of absence or resign from his position in Congress. Republicans have very little legal ability to remove him from the ballot.
- New York's 11th district is made up of Staten Island and part of Brooklyn. It is contained entirely within the expensive New York City media market.
- Recchia has raised more than $1.8 million this cycle. Recchia outraised Rep. Grimm in Q2 of 2014 by a nearly 6-1 margin and has more cash on hand.
- Recchia is on television with the campaign's first ad of the cycle in the Brooklyn and Staten Island cable systems.
- This was one of the first districts where the DCCC went on television this cycle.
- The Recchia campaign launched their second ad of the cycle on September 8th titled "20 Counts", which features residents of the 11th Congressional District reading the indictment against Rep. Grimm.
- According to a NY 1 News/Capital New York/Siena College Research Institute poll of likely NY-11 voters released September 16, Republican Rep. Grimm is locked in a neck-and-neck battle against Democratic challenger Domenic Recchia. Seven weeks out from Election Day, Grimm leads 44-40 percent, with four percent for Green Party candidate Henry Bardel and 12 percent undecided. Grimm has a nine-point Staten Island lead while Recchia is ahead by seven points in Brooklyn.

Amanda Renteria (CA-21)

Incumbent Rep. David Valadao

- Amanda Renteria is a first generation American who previously worked as a high school teacher and Chief of Staff to U.S. Senator Stabenow.
- President Obama won the 21st district with 55.7% of the vote in 2012.
- Renteria is a strong fundraiser raising over $400,000 in Q2 2014, but more than $500,000 in outside money has already been spent against her this cycle.

Kathleen Rice (NY-04)

Open Seat

- Kathleen Rice is the District Attorney of Nassau County in Long Island representing 1.3 million New Yorkers.
- She was first elected in 2005 after defeating a 31-year incumbent, making her the first woman elected DA in Long Island's history.
- Democrats are strongly favored to keep this seat in 2014. Rep. McCarthy defeated her Republican opponent by 30 points in 2012.
- Rice raised more than $2.4 million in the first two quarters and has more than $1.4 million cash on hand.

2014 Red to Blue Candidates

Martha Robertson (NY-23)

Incumbent Rep. Tom Reed

- Martha Robertson has served in the Tompkins County Legislature since 2002 and had served as Chair of the Legislature since January 2010.
- Rep. Tom Reed won by only 10,000 votes last year against an under-funded challenger.
- Rep. Reed is now under fire for paying his property taxes late over a dozen times and using campaign funds to pay them once. There is currently an outstanding FEC complaint and Ethics complaint regarding his tax issues.
- Rep. Reed is currently on television advertising against Robertson in the Buffalo media market.
- In Q2 of 2014, Robertson raised more than $450,000 and neared cash on hand parity with Rep. Reed.
- Robertson is currently on television in the district.

Andrew Romanoff (CO-06)

Incumbent Rep. Mike Coffman

- Andrew Romanoff is the former Speaker of the Colorado House of Representatives.
- Romanoff's opponent, Rep. Coffman, is out of touch with the changing needs of the district, especially with the increasing Latino population.
- President Obama won this district in 2008 and 2012, political forecasters are rating this seat as a pure toss up.
- Romanoff began airing TV ads in August. He has aired three spots they highlight Romanoff's experience balancing the budget in Colorado, the need for student loan reform, and protecting a woman's right to choose.
- The NRCC has announced a $3 million reservation in the Denver media market in support of Rep. Coffman.
- Rep. Coffman began TV ads the last week of August and the Chamber of Commerce joined him in September.
- In 2014, Colorado elections will be conducted for the first time by mail-in ballots. 84% of likely voters in Colorado's 6th Congressional district are expected to vote before Election Day. When ballots are mailed in mid-October, Republican outside groups including the NRCC and the Young Guns Action Fund will be spending heavily against Romanoff. Romanoff needs to increase his fundraising in September so he has the resources to communicate with voters during this critical time frame.

Kevin Strouse (PA-08)

Incumbent Rep. Mike Fitzpatrick

- Kevin Strouse served in the United States Army as an Army Ranger and then worked at the Central Intelligence Agency.
- Rep. Mike Fitzpatrick was placed on the first round of the Patriot Program, the NRCC's program for vulnerable Republicans.
- Pennsylvania's 8th district is compact and an efficient place to campaign; however, Philadelphia media prices make it one of the most expensive media markets to communicate in.
- The NRCC announced a $1.8 million reservation in the Philadelphia media market in support of NJ-03, PA-06 and PA-08.

Manan Trivedi (PA-06)

Open Seat

- Dr. Manan Trivedi is a physician and an Iraq war veteran. During the war, Trivedi served as a battlefield surgeon with the Marine Corps.
- Trivedi is running in an open seat being vacated by popular Republican incumbent Rep. Jim Gerlach.
- Trivedi will have to communicate in the expensive Philadelphia media market.
- Trivedi's opponent, Ryan Costello, was named to the NRCC Young Guns Program, the NRCC program for top candidates.
- A recent survey of likely voters in Pennsylvania's 6th CD released by the Trivedi campaign shows a closely matched race between Doctor and Iraq War Veteran Manan Trivedi and Chester County Commissioner Ryan Costello. In the initial head to head, the poll shows 35% for Costello to 30% for Trivedi, with 35% of voters undecided.
- The NRCC announced a $1.8 million reservation in the Philadelphia media market in support of NJ-03, PA-06 and PA-08.

James Lee Witt (AR-04)

Open Seat

- James Lee Witt is a former County Judge and the Director of FEMA under President Clinton.
- Witt brings an uncommon wealth of experience and a compelling personal story to this open seat.
- Witt has maintained excellent relationships from his time in the Clinton administration, and has been using his connections to help him raise money in DC and nationally. Witt outraised his opponent two quarters in a row.
- Witt will face Republican Bruce Westerman in November. Westerman is the Arkansas House Majority Leader. He was named to the NRCC's Young Guns roster in July 2014.
- Witt went up on TV in mid- September.

2014 Red to Blue Candidates

Aaron Woolf (NY-21)

Open Seat

- Aaron Woolf is the producer and director of the hit documentary King Corn and the filmmaker behind the acclaimed PBS specials Blueprint America: Beyond the Motor City.
- This is an open seat, being vacated by Democratic Congressman Bill Owens.
- In 2012, President Obama won this district with 53.1% of the vote. The district encompasses a larger territory of Northern New York, extending from the Vermont to the Canadian borders including the Plattsburgh, Watertown and Albany media markets.
- The NRCC announced a $780,000 reservation against Woolf.
- The NRCC named Elise Stefanik to its Young Guns program in July 2014. The NRCC is currently advertising against Woolf in the district.
- Woolf is currently on television on broadcast and cable in the district.
